LOCAL BREVITIES

The baby of Mrs. J. E. Watson, of Stone died last week.

The second term of the Academy began Monday. The attendance is good.

A. H. Cardin has rented a factory at Shady Grove and will put up to bacco at that place.

Mr. A. H. Cardin received by express, last week, a registered Polan-china male pig. It is a beauty.

Now for muddy roads. Roads almost impassable; they come as natural in winter as showers in April.

The Crittenden Land and Mining Co. has opened an office in the old clerk building in the court house yard.

The contested election case of Inboden vs. Culley, for the Magistrate office in the Belle Mines precinct, has been appealed by Culley to the circuit court.

It's off with the old and on with the new. As soon as the Congressional race is over, we begin to discuss the probable candidate for August election.

John Morse was tried before Judge Moore Saturday for carrying concealed weapons, and was fined $27.50 and imprisonment for 24 days.
The evidence showed that he was using too handily a pair of "brass knucks" at Piney Creek church some weeks ago.

Prof. J. V. Brooks, mineralogist and mining engineer, is making a thorough examination of the lands of the Crittenden Mining & Land Co.
Prof. Brooks is thoroughly posted in all matters pertaining to minerals and mining, and he is favorably impressed with the prospects in this section of Kentucky.

Editor Lamb, a gallant Knight of Sturgis Lodge, attended the K. P. meeting at this place week before last; he published in the Enterprise a handsome notice of the event, and closed by saying:

"Long will the memory of this occasion rest with all who were present, and for pure, unadulterated hospitality the Marion folks cannot be surpassed."

The Poor-house.

Monday County Judge Moore and County Attorney Blue rented the poor-house for $100, and let the keeping of the paupers to be each per month. The bidders were Geo. McBride Tom Lunsam and Ben Rutherford, the first bid was $7.00 per month for each pauper, and Geo.
McBride was the bidder. Then the bids dropped under this sum George dropped out, and then the bid began between Ben and Tom, and lasted until the former cried out, "85.00," and this ended the bidding despite the effort of the representatives of the county to make the crowd believe that a big bargain was being lost. During the last year they have been an average of twelve paupers at the house provided for by the county, and the price paid for keeping them was $0.75 per month.

Livingston County Finances.
We are in receipt of a financial statement of Livingston county.
The amount expended by the county for all purposes from Oct. 1889 to Oct. 1890 is $3,966.08. The salaries of the officers are County Judge $450; County Attorney $450; Supt. of Schools $453.75. The poor-house claim is $494.88. County Clerk Lowery closes the statement as follows:

Poll tax for 1891, $2.25, es-	$4050 00 timated to pay Probable amount of special	1661 00 levy of 10 per cent. for bridge purposes
The following bonded indeb-	2120 05

NEIGHBORING NOTES.

Fredonia.

The meeting that close at Bethlehem last week resulted in 58 conversion and several additions to the church. A protracted meeting will commenced at the C P church here next Sunday.

The Sunday school was not crowded last Sunday. There are several meetings in progress in the adjoining neighborhoods which keep several from coming to Sunday school.

Jake Myers and wife, of Princeton, were in town two or three days last week.

John Fletcher, col, who was shot by Sam Jones in Salem two weeks since, is now eating "free grub" at the Poole "house" in Princeton for the offense of carrying concealed weapons in this county some time ago. He served a term at Frankfort a few years since but it did not stop him from violating the law.

Mrs G E Caldwell and Mrs Vinson visited Newton Loves family in Salem neighborhood last week.

W C Glenn wants several good carpenters at Salem this week and next week.

There will be an opportunity for a good painter to get a large job at Salem in a week or two; those wanting work will please call on W C Glenn this week at Salem.

Miss Mary Wyatt was visiting her brother Frank Wyatt and family of Livingston county last week.

Mrs Ella Robinson, of Livingston sent to her sister, Mrs Ada Boyd, of Salem, last week, a beet that weighed 84 lbs. It was the largest beet ever seen in that beat, and lasted the family and two boarders until the 28th of November, and lot of beet left then.

Albert Boaz has the frame up for his house in Keely. It is a nice location, and he can look down upon the citizens of Keely and Fredonia too.

Miss Minnie Cassidy, of Dycus-burg was visiting relatives in town last week.

Misses Nora and Sarah Glenn were visiting in Crittenden and attending the meeting at Caldwell Spring Saturday and Sunday.

Oh, that we could all be Russell's and get $1500.00 a year, and a chance to stay in doors free from the scorching rays and chilly blasts that prevail in this country.

Robt Boyd, postmaster at Salem, now occupies his own house, near his residence, with the office and his stock of groceries, tinware, Queensware, etc.

And if he can't furnish you with a paper or letter, He can furnish you with something better;

And as everybody has to eat as well as wear, His prices cannot be beat; he will treat you square;

The house is on the corner of Main and Church street, Where you can get your mail and something to eat;
He will be glad to have you call at any time.

If you get the Crittenden Press you can hear from every clime.

Frank Ashbridge is building a box-pit and ice house for John W Stegar.

Mrs Chas Guess of White Sulphur was visiting in town and in Crittenden last week.

W C Glenn will furnish you any paper or magazine you want for less than you can get it yourself. Everybody ought to take the Courier-Journal and Globe Democrat and they can hear both sides of all political issues, but to keep thoroughly posted on local matters you should take the Crittenden Press.

E T Franks ran a long-winded race, But in Congress, he will not occupy a place,
And it looks as if he might have known,
It would be useless to run against W J Stone.

The road between Fredonia and Salem is in a bad fix a good deal of the way. Where it was in fair condition it has been plowed up so as to hold all the rain that falls on it and make it fearful muddy.

Samme Cassidy, of Dycusburg, was in town Sunday.

Stegar & Dollar have a new dam at their mill but they are not likely to catch near all the water.

The article in last week's issue of the Press in regard to Corporal Punishment in Schools suits my views exactly. For a man to be slapping around among other peoples children is more bethenish and brutal than the former slave drivers were guilty of. Yet some people seem to think it very necessary, especially if it is the other mans children that catches it.

Walter Young is helping to build

Gray and Daniels houses in Salem.

The rain Sunday night and Monday has got the roads in a bad fix.
Being frequently plowed they will no doubt stay bad for the balance of the winter.

SALEM.

A three foot vein of fine coal has been discovered on the farm of Mr Joiners, better known as the R S Boyd farm, three miles of Salem, and men are now at work getting out coal.

A very light vote was polled in the Salem precinct last Tuesday.

Salem has no Marshall.

Sam Stevens died on the third of this month. Mr Stevens was the leading merchant of Lela.

Bumers says there will be a wedding in Salem soon.

Mr Archeson teaches here every day Monday, and Sunday night.

Presbytery here on 5th Sunday.

Miss Alma LaRue is visiting friends in Carverville this week.

Miss Maud LaRue returned home from Union co, last week, she has been teaching a music school at De Koven, Ky.

Charlie Gray had a fine horse to die, while hitched to the buggy last week.

The corn crop is not turning out as well as many people expected.

Mr Mitchell will be ready to grind your corn at his mill next Friday.

Joseph Hays is making considerable reputation as horse doctor.

Salem wants a boot and shoe maker.

J J Hurley, representing several good insurance companies, was in town last Thursday.

W W Stewart or Smithland was in town on the 6th.

Collin Hodge is very sick with pneumonia.

Sam Patterson returned home from Tennessee last week.

E S Woodward, representing the National Life Ins. Co, spent last week here, and from all accounts he did a good business.

The question may be asked, who is E T Franks?

It was told on the Hon J A Fleming while he was making the race for County Judge in this county, that he said if the people did not elect him to the office of county judge, they could go to hell; and he would go to Texas. We do not believe Mr Fleming said it, he was our enemies for said office and we voted for him, but it is a fact that he has gone to Texas.

We agree exactly with O. G. W. in his remarks on corporal punishment in the schools, and hope the time will come when those teachers who advocate corporal punishment in school- will cease to get employment.

We want the business men of Marion and the farmers along the line not to forget the road question which we have had up for some time past. Help us to make a first class road from Marion to Salem.

It made us feel good when we saw the picture in last weeks Press, and underneath it in large letters "in line again," we love old Crittenden we once lived there, and happy now that our boy's are "in line again." The "Republicans" will yet find out that the Post was right when he said:

Oh what a tangled web we weave,
When first we learn to deceive.
Jones & Co., are making water elevators and bed springs, in Salem.
The water elevator and carrier is one of the best things of kind ever made, if your spring or well is a half mile from your house, the use of this grand invention makes the water as handy as if it were in the yard.
County and State rights for sale, call and see them first door above P. Grassham's store.

Some young bloods are in the habit of coming to town late Saturday afternoon, getting drunk and then running their horses through the streets after dark, yelling like wild Indians. This is a bad habit my young friends, and some day will prove a very expensive one. Beware of strong drink, and remember that the "way of the transgressor is hard."

Miss Eva Weldon, of Pinkneyville was visiting Mrs. Butler's family last week.

McChesney is closing out his groceries to make room for his son, who will fill the house with dry goods.

Overdyer Slocum.

A big lot of guns and shooting materials, bought before the heavy advances, still going at "old prices at Pierce & Son's."

I want all kinds of country produce, except butter, will pay highest prices. E. C. Moore, Stone, Ky.

Shot, powder, caps, wads, loaded shells, cartridges, belts and hunting costs, all cheap at Crider & Crider's.

TOLU.

Mr. H Young has added a droy to the town's onward progress to greatness. He also added a horse to the droy.

Crawford & Nichols have the nobbiest dress goods in town.

Mr. Steve Perkins is here putting a tin roof on the Crawford residence.
A J Bennetts daily quote to school, per hack, from his country home looks like a pie nic party.

Go to Crawford & Nichols for boots and shoes; they are sole agents for Tolu for the Walker boots and shoes.

We give notice to Reed & Babb that there is a man here who has a lot of hogs that he can't sell. Fact:
"The rip of the happy school boys "breaches" can be heard as he slides athwart the green sward of the play ground.

Corn husking has commenced in the town. The crop is good.

Crawford & Nichols have an immense line of shaws, skirts, ladies underwear, etc; cheap for cash.

L Miles was here Friday hustling for the Press.

Hammond & Black are the new millers.

Crider & Co's new building adds greatly to the appearance of that part of town.

Crawford & Nichols bought their tinware before the advance and can give you some "eye openers" on prices.

The "Ark" is at our landing dressing staves.

Mr. John Bugg, the timber man, has removed his family to our burg from Indiana.

Sam Marks went to Marion last week.

Will Crawford and Lissie Nichols have purchased the Greenleaf & Rucker stock of goods. They are both home boys and are very popular among a large coterie of friends and should do a good business. Success to them.

Mr. Green Crawfords new residence "on the hill" is nearing completion. We are informed that Mr.
Green will have an extra chimney built for his pipe.

Great stacks of goods are arriving by ever boat and our merchants are doing big biz.

We have been shaking, hence no items for some time.

We live in town again and Casey Fork is silent and deserted. We could have taught five months but the fight stopped our pay at three Bencos, etc.

New Salem.

Miss Roxie Threlkeld, two children of Wm. Fuller and a little daughter of Eli Eaton are on the sick list this week.

Mrs Blanch Harris, of Carverville spent last week with her parents, Mr and Mrs W C Tyner.

Frank Cruce and family, of Crayneville, spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of Irvin Bruster.

Mr Cal Adams and wife, of White Hall, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this section.

Henry Bruster spent half of last week trying to lease the Goleconda terry.

Jas B Hardy and Wm Devenport have taken the contract to build the residence of Esq Stevens at Salem.

The meeting called at Emmaus with some 30 conversants and 24 additions to the church.

W J Laure has gone to Missouri on business.

The good citizens of this section turned out Saturday, cut and sawed enough wood to run the widow Thorning this winter.

The rain that fell on the 9th was much needed, especially on the wheat crop which was looking very bad.

Esq E H Taylor and wife left last Monday for a three weeks visit to friends and relatives in Wilson county Tenn.

The election at Union was the quietest for many years, but Bill got there all the same.

Joe Rochester, of Marion passed through this section Saturday.

The show at New Salem school house on the night of the 8th did not materialize; rent too high so says the show man.

Look out for a wedding before long, so says madam ramor.

A few good fat cattle for sale in this section.

Joe Pace and Bunk Baker spent two days in the river bottoms last week look at land; these gentlemen, we understand, think of moving on the river.

John James is sawing on the farm of Will LaRue.

Willie Lowery has just returned from a four weeks hunt in Ark, and Mo.

Gray & Alley passed up this week with a drove of cattle.

Glendale.

Mr Jas Milliken has sold his stock of groceries and his farm.

Mr Jesse Humphreys has purchased the farm of J L Milliken and is going to erect a dry goods store at Millikens old stand.

The F M B A is still in progress at this place with Mr T A Minner as president.

The school is progressing finely with Miss Alice Griffith as teacher.
Miss Alice is an accomplished young lady and we wish her much success.

Dr Deboe our school superintendent visited our school the preceding week; look out for a new school house.

Born to the wife of John Swain a girl.

D H Franks has discovered a led mine on his place and sold his farm for $3,100.

The protracted meeting is in progress at Carverville. Rev. J. W. C. Gilbert and Blackburn officiating.

Mr George Hurley and Miss Lillie Hall have been visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.
